

Air 1 is an important part of my life, as well as my families life. We listen to them everyday, and are blessed by the positivity they provide compared to other stations in the area. Without Air 1 our community would cease to thrive, and would no longer be the kind of community we would want to live in.